The new, gated community is developed by Neal Land & Neighborhoods. Visterra of Venice is located at 321 Visterra Blvd., Venice.

This all-ages weekend outing includes a mix of seasonal activities and craft stations for kids and adults, a Polaroid station, music by a DJ, and fall-inspired snacks and refreshments, among other entertainment options. The event features a scavenger hunt with the chance to win prizes.

“The Fall Home Tour is more than a showcase of these attractive new homes; it’s an opportunity to step into the lifestyle that makes Vistera of Venice unique,” said John A. Neal, president of Neal Land & Neighborhoods. “We have an exemplary line-up of builders offering a wide choice of home styles and plans, complemented by a lifestyle team that is passionate about curating meaningful experiences that bring neighbors together and activate every corner of the community. When visitors have the chance to experience this vitality firsthand, it often makes them enthusiastic about joining our master-planned community.”

The event is free and open to the public. To RSVP for free parking, visit here.

A coastal city community, Vistera of Venice, merges luxury and lifestyle to bring timeless Florida living to its homeowners. Vistera of Venice offers residents access to The Club, the community’s central amenity that includes a resort-style pool, a modern fitness center, a game room, and other gathering spaces. This is complemented by the community’s easy access to nature, beaches, a historic downtown, and other outdoor recreational activities.

Vistera of Venice features villas starting in the $300s, and single-family homes starting in the $400s+. A selection of quick move-in and ready-to-build options is available. Models are open daily. Start your visit at The Club, 321 Vistera Boulevard, Venice, FL 34275.
